

Academic Acute Care Surgery Opportunity

— Omaha, NE —

Contact: Debbie Gleason, CMSR
Office: (402) 559-4679 Mobile: (402) 350-7167
Toll Free: (877) 647-7497
Email: DGleason@NebraskaMed.com
Web: PhysicianLink.NebraskaMed.com

The Opportunity

The University of Nebraska Medical Center has an opportunity for an Academic BC /BE Surgeon who is fellowship trained in Trauma / Critical Care

- Be an integral part of this exciting and growing program
- Level 1 Trauma Center that sees 1200 trauma related admissions per year, 300 of which are ISS of 15 or greater
- Enjoy competitive compensation and generous benefits
- Responsibilities include clinical care, research and teaching Medical Students and Residents
- UNMC has more than 3,100 students, and is known for excellence, innovation and quality patient care
- UNMC's 689-bed teaching hospital, The Nebraska Medical Center, has an international reputation for providing solid organ and bone marrow transplantation services and is well-known nationally and regionally for its oncology, neurology and cardiology programs.
- Opportunity to participate in the care of burn patients is available

The Community

- Vibrant Omaha Metro of 840,000+ residents has perfect blend of big-city amenities and Midwest hospitality
- Voted one of America's "Best Places to Live, Work & Play" by Kiplinger's Magazine
- Low cost of living, excellent shopping and over 2,000 restaurants
- Enjoy the lively downtown district, historic Old Market area, scenic riverfront or 10,500 acres of picturesque park land.
- With everything from a world-class zoo to the College World Series to the nation's largest community theater, there's something for everyone!

UNIVERSITY OF Nebraska
Medical Center